

I strongly believe that K-Love has a powerful affect on communities across this country. People respond readily to the uplifting music and songs that they play, and people have something that they can turn to when they are either having a bad day or experiencing a bad situation and need a pastor to talk to. They serve this community in so many ways and it would be a disservice to have them displaced by the low power FM.